Westward Ho!

1951

Published by the Senior Class
WESTERN HIGH SCHOOL
BALTIMORE, MARYLAND

Class Song

'51 forever, our standards we will uphold,
Striving together for the purple and the gold, our colors.
Forward we're marching, our work begun;
We will honor Western and the class of '51.

Our banner's waving throughout the years;
We'll ne'er forget thee in our laughter and our tears, dear Western.
Memories we'll treasure, our love won't die;
'51 will cherish the name of Western High.

Dedication

OUR YEARBOOK is a permanent record of some of the best years of our lives. It will remain unchanged long after our graduation. Therefore, this lasting reminder of Western must be dedicated thoughtfully. To Mrs. Viola R. Burns, our year adviser, the class of 1951 dedicates this book. She has been our friend and guide for four years, and we are grateful for all that she has done for us.

VIOLA R. BURNS

To the Class of 1951:

As you leave your school days behind you and face the challenge of the adult world, may you have courage to meet each problem as it presents itself, and sympathy to understand each person who crosses your pathway. May you look back on your high school experiences and find that you have been trained in the ways of ordered liberty and democracy.

Our best wishes go with you always.

Dear Senior Class,

As you graduate from Western High School you not only take a great step forward in your lives but also leave in important position, that of upperclassmen of Western to be filled. It is our goal as the Junior Class to fill this position next year and by following your good example and fine standards we believe we can do this. May your future be as successful as your past has been at Western!

Dear 1951 Graduates,

As we look back through our Sophomore year we remember the fun we have had working and planning for our class activities.

Our first big day was the Sophomore-Senior Party, the Square Dance, where we got acquainted with many of you our big sisters. Next came the contest for our class song. We chose "53, Oh '53" to the tune of "On, Wisconsin." Then, after the Christmas holidays, we were busy planning and rehearsing for Sophomore Day which we hope you enjoyed.

Now, as we are approaching our first year as upperclassmen of Western High School, we are determined to follow in your footsteps and uphold the high ideals you have set before us.

Congratulations on finally reaching your long-awaited goal of graduation. As you, our big sisters of '51, leave Western, you take with you our best wishes for success and happiness in your chosen careers.

Very sincerely yours,

CLASS OF 1953

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE OF 1954

First row: Marian Trieger, Assistant Acting Secretary; Dorothy Stallings, Acting Secretary; Barbara Sussman, Chairman; Lois Ann Bratt, Acting Treasurer. Second row: Patricia McGinn, Phyllis Resness, Virginia Schmitt, Colette Smith, Ellen Kien, Peggy Ross, Ruth Siegel, Dorothy Harwood, Sandra Sinn, Juanita Frost.

Dear Class of '51,

As your Senior year at Western draws to a close we, the Freshmen, wish to extend our best wishes to you. We are just starting the path which is now at an end for you. Graduation sounds like a long way off to us, but we don't believe the time will drag here at Western for when there is so much to learn, and there are so many activities to join, time slips by unnoticed. Our year activities are already under way with the help of the Executive Committee pictured above. They will be the leaders of '54 until next term when our year officers will be elected.

Why your Freshman days probably seem like yesterday. Do you remember how you felt that first day in high school? How you wandered around lost and seemed to be in everyone's way? The Junior Freshman Party given in your honor by your sister year? Remember that biology lesson on dissecting a frog the period before lunch and how you just couldn't eat that day? Perhaps someday as you gaze upon this page in your yearbook you'll smile as you recall these things and your days at Western High once again.

Now as our friends we would like to say, "May you be successful in whatever you undertake and 'May your life have just enough clouds to make a pretty sunset'."

Sincerely yours,

THE CLASS OF '54

As We Look Back

Here we stand in gowns of white
On this our graduation night;
Our thoughts slip back to years gone by
When first we entered Western High.

On our first day as Freshmen meek
Our tongues seem tied; we couldn't speak.
We lost our way to class; what's more,
We blithely climbed up Stairway 4.

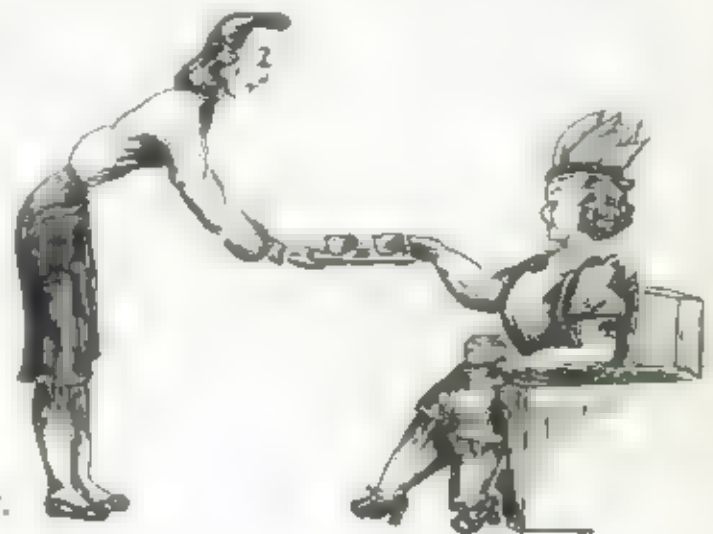

The Freshman Frolic came our way;
We even chose a queen of May.
The day was fine; there's just one thing—
The queen was there, but not the king.

Our second year before us loomed;
To grueling studies we were doomed.
We cloaked ourselves in black despair,
And from our heads we tore our hair.

But gradually the world grew bright;
To our surprise things turned out right.
To Sophomore Teas our mothers came;
There was no tea. Oh, what a shame!

Then later on that fateful year
We found that life held still more cheer.
For Sophomore Day had come at last—
Our greatest hopes were now surpassed.

The Sophomore Party made us proud;
A great success!" exclaimed the crowd
The Seniors said that we were grand
And gave our class a great big hand

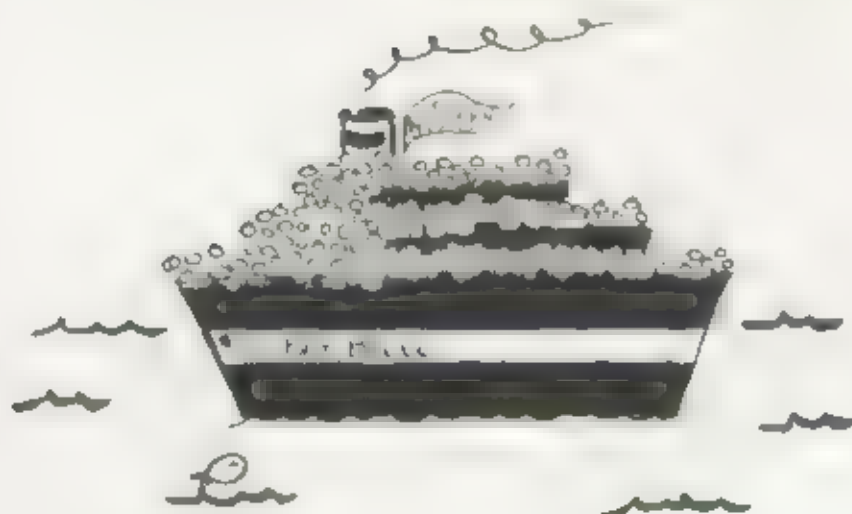

Two years behind, two years ahead,
Our Sophomore days had really fled
We'd grown an inch, we'd gained a pound,
Our minds were now considered sound.

Our Junior Day was really "great";
The Army helped us celebrate.
Our hearts beat fast; we took a bow,
For we were upperclassmen now.

As Juniors we gave one more show;
Great talent from our midst did flow.
The Freshmen cheered us—loud and long,
And begged us, "Please sing one more song."

In all events of Rally Week
The top positions we did seek
In Sports Week too we tried our best,
And played our games with lots of zest

The Bay Belle cruise was next in line,
For weeks we knew the sun would shine
Our class and all our guests did float
Way down the bay in one big boat

Our Junior Prom turned out to be
A grand affair for every "I"
Our hearts in time with music beat
And set the pace for dancing feet

Three years of waiting now had passed,
We claimed our Senior rights at last
The front seats were our very own,
No more were they a gift or loan

On Senior Day we felt quite proud
To take these seats among the crowd,
With heads held high, we took the lead
And vowed to make our year succeed

Farewell Assembly came too soon,
But we still had the rest of June
This thought in mind, we dried our tears
And looked ahead to our careers

Now all this time, we dreamed about
The dance we couldn't do without—
Our Senior Prom—the final touch
To happy years that meant so much

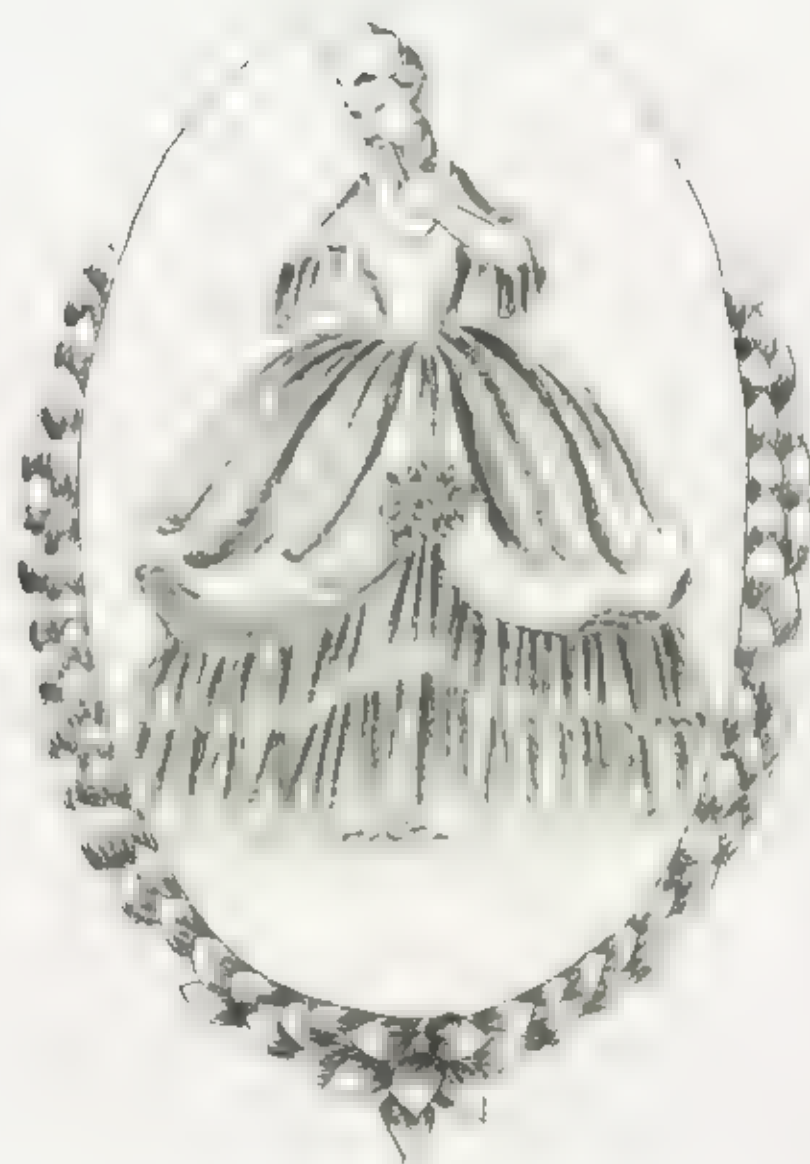

Here we stand in gowns of white
On this our graduation night;
As voices echo from the stage,
On high school days we turn the page

Work and play! work and play!

Elizabeth Corkins
Athletic Advisor of 1951

Although we are not star athletes, we should like to thank Miss Corkins for the understanding help she has given us when we couldn't hit the ball in softball, couldn't hit the birdie in badminton, and couldn't hit the basket in basketball. Even though we aren't stars, we'll remember what she has said and try to "be a sport" in everything we do.

A.W.O.L.

On Monday it's ridiculous
To try to concentrate,
For how can chemistry compete
With memories of a date?
Excuse us if we yawn in class—
Le français is a bore;
Our interest in the subject
Is confined to "vive l'amour."
We aren't in the mood for math,
The theorem's past recall.
It's easy to remember
That he's handsome, dark, and tall
So, faculty, forgive us please
If we are slow to learn.
On Monday minds are far away;
Tomorrow they'll return.

Why is it he
Does not like me?
I would like me

Spring Comes to Western

Western High School's the place . . . we can't get out of it . . . and sit around and listen . . . to the words the teachers say . . . where they stay later . . . their heads explore . . . and Spring with velvet in her hair . . . starts tapping at the door . . . where each hour may come early . . . at lunch hour may come late . . . and gossip's more important than what's been the place . . . where even a thing of ropes and bars . . . is not hanging down the floor . . . and Spring with rain-drenched garments starts tapping at the door . . . Oh it's hard enough to listen . . . it's almost impossible . . . when water storms are raging . . . or you're drowsy with the heat . . . but it's doubly hard to concentrate . . . on what's gone on before . . . when Spring performed with accidents . . . starts tapping . . . the door

LOYALTY SONG

Let our voices blend together
In the praise of Western High.
Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior,
Our spirit will not die
Your traditions of truth and honor.
Of loyalty and right,
Are the ideals you have given
To each Westernite

Western's faculty and students
Pledged to work in harmony,
To make us worthy leaders
Of our community
Her achievements have been proven
By her colors flying high
The red and black waves proudly
O'er Western High

Chorus:

To you, Western High School,
We pledge our faith and loyalty.
To serve your name in love and honor
And to follow your standards faithfully
For e'er we'll remember your motto so true
We've received light, let us give light—
A lesson well learned from you

DEAR WESTERN

Dear Western, we greet thee with songs of thy praise
And with hopes that unchanged may be,
That forever in safety each ship thou wilt guide
O'er the tempest of destiny's sea.

May thy colors for aye wave proudly on high,
May thy name e'er be linked unto fame;
For we've loved thee, now love thee, and ever shall love,
And ever shall honor thy name.

*Each of you will go your way
Upon a separate path.
And, if perchance someday
You ever do look back,
Glance over this and read
Between the lines—
Our wishes to you—love,
Joy, and happy times.*
